

The mission of the FCC is to protect and serve the public interest not promote private business. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation.